

BIOGRAPHY OF CHRISTELLE DREYER

Christelle Dreyer is a visual communicator, expressing herself artistically through Dance and Graphic Design. Born In Cape Town, South Africa, at an early age, she found her passion through the freedom of expressing herself creatively. Her physical concerns because of Osteogenesis Imperfecta never deterred her from vigorously pursuing dance. She uses her unique body movements within varying dance styles. To captivate audiences and inspire everyone privileged to experience her soulful and passionate performances. In working for Remix Dance Company, Christelle was educated in dance and children as part of the Remix Integrated Dance Project with Nicola Elliott and Malcolm Black. She received the Cultural Affairs Award from the Western Cape Government (2017) for her contribution to the arts as a person with a disability. As the only African participant, she participated in the 2019 Dancing Disability Laab held in Los Angeles, California.

Currently a post-graduate master's student at the Cape Peninsula University of Technology, she hopes to obtain a Degree in Graphic Design.